Prof. Dr. Beat Müllhaupt

Head of Hepatology and Vice Chair – Department of Gastroenterology and Hepatology – University Hospital Zurich

PM Program Director

Role in LiSyM-Cancer

- Program Director: Responsible for research activities and cross-network consortial cooperation
- Focus on communication with young scientists and the public to increase the outreach of liver systems medicine research
- Interview with Beat Müllhaupt (by BMFTR, in German)

Expertise

- specialized in acute and chronic liver diseases, acute liver failure and transplant hepatology
- Epidemiology and natural history of these diseases in the context of current therapeutic options.

Degrees

- Medical training at various clinics in Switzerland
- Medicine Studies at Universities of Fribourg and Basel

Professional Experience

- 2017 - 2023, Vice Chair, Department of Gastroenterology and Hepatology, University Hospital Zürich
- Since 2010, Full Professor, University of Zürich
- Since 2004, Head of Hepatology, University Hospital Zürich
- 2003 – 2010, Associate Professor, University of Zürich
- Senior Physician in Gastroenterology and Hepatology, University Hospital Zürich
- Research Fellowship: University of California, San Francisco, Veteran Administration Medical Center and Department of Medicine.

Honors and Awards (selection)

- Member of the American Association for the Study of the Liver (AASLD), European Association for the Study of the Liver (EASL), Swiss Association for the Study of the Liver (SASL)
- Member of Foederatio Medicorum Helveticorum (FMH), Medical Society of the Canton Zürich (AGZ), Swiss Association for Gastroenterology (SGG)
- 2016 – 2020, Co-President of SGG
- 2003 – 2018, Board member of SASL
- 2014 – 2016, Vice President of SGG
- 2006 – 2014, Board Member of SGG