

Prof. Dr. Frank Lammert

Vice President and Head of Department –
Health Care – Hannover Medical School (MHH)

Role in LiSyM-Cancer

- Co-Project leader in SMART-NAFLD with University Hospital Hannover: contributes patient cohorts, samples and data

Expertise

- Professor of Medicine and Public Health
- Coordinator German projects of EU H2020 network LiverScreen (Homburg, Hannover)
- Studies on molecular, clinical and socio-economic determinants of chronic liver diseases

Publications

2026-01-01	Identification of Circulating MiR-4651 as Novel Biomarker for Metabolic Dysfunction–associated Steatotic Liver Disease Gastro Hep Advances
2025-09-01	Evaluating a population-based screening programme for early detection of liver fibrosis and cirrhosis in primary care in Germany: a cost assessment study BMJ Open
2023-08-01	Development, validation, and prognostic evaluation of a risk score for long-term liver-related outcomes in the general population: a multicohort study The Lancet
2023-01-05	Genetic variation in TERT modifies the risk of hepatocellular carcinoma in alcohol-related cirrhosis: results from a genome-wide case-control study Gut
2022-01-01	The rs429358 Locus in Apolipoprotein E Is Associated With Hepatocellular Carcinoma in Patients With Cirrhosis Hepatology Communications